

School libraries and teacher librarians in 21st century Australia ¶

House of Representatives Standing Committee on Education and Employment, March 2011 ¶

*The Committee hopes that this report goes some way toward highlighting teacher librarians' concerns; ¶
showcases their valuable contributions to educational outcomes in Australian Schools; ¶
and starts to examine their evolving role and place in Australia's education system. ¶*

Ms Amanda Rishworth MP, Chair ¶

Tabled in Parliament 23 May 2011 ¶

Debated in Parliament When???? ¶

To: The Minister for School Education, Early Childhood and Youth → → ¶

How will you help ensure that all students and teachers have: ¶

- → access to adequate print and online learning resources ¶
- → 21st century library programs delivered by qualified teacher librarians and technical staff? ¶

And that national guidelines and the recommendations of the Inquiry Committee, especially in relation to the training of more teacher librarians, are actioned? ¶

From: ¶

---

School libraries and teacher librarians in 21st century Australia ¶

House of Representatives Standing Committee on Education and Employment, March 2011 ¶

*The Committee hopes that this report goes some way toward highlighting teacher librarians' concerns; ¶
showcases their valuable contributions to educational outcomes in Australian Schools; ¶
and starts to examine their evolving role and place in Australia's education system. ¶*

Ms Amanda Rishworth MP, Chair ¶

Tabled in Parliament 23 May 2011 ¶

Debated in Parliament When???? ¶

To: The Minister for School Education, Early Childhood and Youth → → ¶

How will you help ensure that all students and teachers have: ¶

- → access to adequate print and online learning resources ¶
- → 21st century library programs delivered by qualified teacher librarians and technical staff? ¶

And that national guidelines and the recommendations of the Inquiry Committee, especially in relation to the training of more teacher librarians, are actioned? ¶

From: ¶

---

School libraries and teacher librarians in 21st century Australia ¶

House of Representatives Standing Committee on Education and Employment, March 2011 ¶

*The Committee hopes that this report goes some way toward highlighting teacher librarians' concerns; ¶
showcases their valuable contributions to educational outcomes in Australian Schools; ¶
and starts to examine their evolving role and place in Australia's education system. ¶*

Ms Amanda Rishworth MP, Chair ¶

Tabled in Parliament 23 May 2011 ¶

Debated in Parliament When???? ¶

To: The Minister for School Education, Early Childhood and Youth → → ¶

How will you help ensure that all students and teachers have: ¶

- → access to adequate print and online learning resources ¶
- → 21st century library programs delivered by qualified teacher librarians and technical staff? ¶

And that national guidelines and the recommendations of the Inquiry Committee, especially in relation to the training of more teacher librarians, are actioned? ¶

From: ¶